Mr. and Mrs. Aven McDonald

50th Anniversary

Wave 22 Dec 1984

Mr. and Mrs. Aven McDonald were honored by their children Ronald and Joyce Jacobs, Jess and Linda McDonald, for their 50th Wedding Anniversary on Sat., Dec. 10, 1983.

They were married Dec. 12, 1933 at Duchesne, Utah.

The lovely buffet dinner was given at the Mt. Spaa. The hall was beautifully decorated with tables set for 60 guests.

A beautiful seven tier wedding cake made by Dixie Mair, a niece, and a lovely hand made memory book were on a special table.

Jess McDonald offered a toast to his parents and Karolee Mair a niece, gave a tribute to Eunice and Aven.

Many out of town relatives and special friends along with local family members were there to honor them.

Eunice and Aven want to thank their children and grandchildren for this special evening.

AVEN JESSE AND LINDA MCDONALD

Aven Jesse McDonald was born April 21, 1943 in Heber City, Utah, to Aven Willard and Eunice Fieldsted McDonald. He was delivered by Retta Murdock who was serving as a midwife at that time. He was the youngest in a family of three children. He has a sister, Marie, and a sister, Joyce.

Jesse received his education in the Heber City schools, graduating from Wasatch High School in 1961. He then attended B.Y.U. and Utah Trade Tech., majoring in business administration. During his vacations between school terms, he worked in the sawmills in Kamas, Utah, and then at the Hecla Mining Operation at Keetley until he went into the U.S. Army in 1965, serving in Korea. While he was still in the service he married Linda Jones on May 24, 1965 in Elko, Nevada, and they made their home in Seaside, California near where Jesse was stationed. After his discharge, they returned to Heber and he worked in the construction business in several areas. He worked for a while for Verl Rothlisberger, at Kennecott's Eureka Operation, and at Stoford Chemical in Randolph, Utah. After Kennecott settled a striking dispute, Jesse returned to their Eureka operation until it closed down in 1978. He then went into the insulation business (Tri West), working for himself.

Jesse has been an active member of the L.D.S. Church and served as Ward Clerk under Bishop Claude R. Hicken. He served as Scout Master and was active in the Y.M.M.I.A. He enjoys being with his family and participating in outdoor activities. He is an avid fisherman and hunter and loves camping.

Linda Jones McDonald was born July 2, 1945 in Heber City, Utah, a daughter of Stanford and Lorraine Crook Jones. She has two brothers, Jerald and Curtis, and one sister, Sharon.

Linda attended schools in Nevada, Wyoming, Echo, Utah, and Heber as her father was working in these areas while she was growing up. Linda remembers one particular experience that happened while they were living in Echo. She and her brother, Jerry, rolled an inner tube down the hill on the highway nearly wrecking a Greyhound bus that happened to be passing. They ran and hid in an abandoned truck sleeper so their father, who was very upset, couldn't find them and spank them.

Linda graduated from Wasatch High School in 1963 and on August 24 of that year she married Herschel Lee Ashley. They were later divorced. They had one son, Val Lee Ashley. On the 24th of May, 1965 she married Aven Jesse McDonald. Following her graduation, Linda worked at the sewing factory and the Grill Cafe. When Jesse began his own business in insulation, she managed it and did the insulating for four years while Jesse worked in the mines and for Claude Hicken. It was very hard work and Jesse gives her the credit for keeping the business together.

Jesse and Linda are the parents of three daughters, Joy Lin (Tootie), Traci Sharon, and Margo Marie.

Jesse and Linda have been interested in missionary work and have tried to do their part in helping investigators learn of the Gospel. They have held missionary classes in their home and these have resulted in some converts being baptized into the Church.

Linda has served in the Primary as a teacher, as Church Magazine Representative and as a Relief Society Visiting Teacher. She likes reading, doing oil paintings, tubing on the river, hunting, camping, and anything to do with the out-of-doors.
